Projects

The process is complex and expensive, and it's not something you want to mess up. You could opt for a local freight forwarding service, or get in touch with an international shipping giant. But, these provide limited flexibility and responsiveness, and operating costs can be high. Why not take advantage of freight forwarding services that give you the best of both worlds? Our flexible and cost-effective options allow you to manage your own shipments without sacrificing access to international expertise or local market knowledge. Our long-term service contracts with maritime lines and international airlines, combined with our vast global network of offices and door-to-door services under one roof makes us competitive, reliable and contributes to overall customer satisfaction. Here at The Global Ocean Group our goal is to make international cargo delivery as easy as possible for you and your business. With over 30 years of experience in the industry, we've got what it takes to get the job done right.
